Guest of the Month

Bakari was born and raised in Indianapolis. He comes from a large family: three brothers and two sisters. Bakari has three kids: two girls and a boy, along with two grandbabies. His most influential people in his life were his mom and dad because of how well they took care of him.

Bakari's occupation while growing up was driving trucks. One of his favorite childhood memories was going to his family reunions because he was able to be around lots of family that he didn't see throughout the year.

Bakari loves learning about different cultures around the world. He has a motto that he lives by which is "be nice to everyone because you want everyone to be nice to you." What he enjoys most about the center is seeing different people and engaging with other guests!
